- Each time you start a new egg retrieval cycle or embryo transfer cycle you will be charged the above English language support fee.
- If egg retrieval and embryo transfer are canceled after the egg retrieval cycle and embryo transfer cycle have begun, the English language support fee will not be refunded.
- There is no charge for the timing therapy cycle unless there are additional requests.
- No fee will be charged when changing from artificial insemination to timing therapy. On the other hand, you will be charged the English language support fee for artificial insemination if you change from timing therapy to artificial insemination.
- If hysteroscopy, HSG and surgical procedure are canceled after pre-explanation has been conducted, the English language support fee will not be refunded.
- If a translation request is made and then canceled at a later date, the translation fee will not be refunded.
